

I believe the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We have not been totally bombarded with telemarketers since the Privacy Law has been in effect as before it was nothing to get at least 2 or 3 calls each evening.